Public Comment and Correspondence Communications

a. STPC – none.
   PTO – Ms. Stone reported: January meeting coming up; and very successful fundraising in December with Book Fair.
b. LHS Student Council – none.
c. Litchfield Prevention Council: Mr. Waugh reported: “Courage to Speak” program to be held at the Intermediate School soon.
d. Other Public Comment
   • Ms. Stone commented on the need for the Board of Education to take an active part in the process going on with the Facilities and Building Use Committee. Parents would support the Board if needed.
   • Mr. Waugh commented: possible need to fill an opening left by a member who resigned from this Committee with a member of the community.
e. Correspondence
   • Letter from Ms. Iffland (former music teacher in Litchfield) complimenting several of our high school music students on their work with her for a church performance.
   • Thank you note from the CS staff for the BOE’s tray of cookies.
   • Thank you note from Mr. Pavlick for the fruit sent after his surgery.
   • Ms. Haggard reviewed bulleted points of her first three days in the district and complimented the staff and administrators for a wonderful introduction to the system. Ms. Carr noted the need for assessing our use of databases and software and the impact of this assessment on the budget development.
   • Mr. Fiorillo reported on his upcoming appeal to the Board of Finance at their next meeting.

Superintendent’s Report

Superintendent McMullin reported on the following: the district welcomed Ms. Julie Haggard as the new Director of Special Education and will add a letter from Julie Haggard to the webpage; sally port at CS was intended for security but has had positive impact on energy savings; issues with fingerprinting potential volunteers at the police station will be resolved by using Ed Connection in the immediate future despite an additional cost of $19.00; engender good will to community members who need to redo their fingerprints over and over with the police; attached data from Ed Connection “How has Education Connection served Litchfield in 2014-2015?;” this report is also on the web.

Committee Reports

Curriculum Program and Personnel - none
Facilities and Technology – none

Finance - Mr. Shuhi reported that the committee met on Monday and discussed the following: monthly year-to-date report; need to share report with Board; balance of money mid-year; budgeted through subject areas; upcoming budget process; reviewed the requests from principals and asked for additional detail; difference between ECS (Educational Cost Sharing) dollars and ECG (Excess Costs Grant) dollars; ECG requires accounting for requesting state percentage of Special Education overage costs; clarifying the process; and OPEC discussion next meeting.

Education Connection - Mr. Waugh reported: process in place for replacing Danny Thibodaux; and finalists will be studied the next meeting on Feb. 4th.

Facilities Usage - Mr. Waugh reported the Facilities Committee met on the 22nd and discussed the following: subcommittee appointments; completion of work and forwarding to Board; issues with what the next steps will be; should the RFP proposals be sent to Board of Education or Board of Selectmen; input from Mr. Buckley, Chair; need for member to replace Jack Healy who resigned.

Board members discussed: who should determine the dates for bids, the timing, and the location of the bid opening; Facilities Committee noted the Board of Ed has more personnel to complete the RFP; it’s the charge of Board of Selectmen to finalize the RFP since they requested the process; issues with control over the process; completion by end of June; use of office resources; who is responsible for the final cost issues; January 27th is the next meeting; mostly just procedural stuff remains in the RFP; and not up to Board of Ed to launch bid process.
