Old Business

a. 2nd Reading – Memorandum of Understanding

Mr. Fiorillo reported: reviewed the “Proposed Addendum to the Memorandum of Understanding” handout; written by Mr. Fiorillo and Mr. Len Fasano; Facilities and Maintenance survey and results handed out; 7 questions including the sharing information, how its accomplished, and feedback; 100 surveyed; survey shows staff appreciate good efforts from great staff; the issue is the organizational structure; teachers are not sure how to request help; there is no way to communicate needs; sometimes grab custodian in hall to get things done; sometimes tell the office; issues with school safety; teachers provided insightful comments; Mr. Fiorillo wrote memo to town; issues with organization of services; specificity needed; the purpose of the proposed MOU is adding clarity; need to amend the original document which relied on past practice to get things done, but none of the original players are still around, so past-practice is missing; charts of responsibility added; and need to approve MOU and send to town.

MOTION made by Mr. Shuhi and seconded by Ms. Carr: to approve the addendum as stated and direct the Facilities Manager to review for a period not to exceed 45 days.

Board members discussed the following: issues with cleanliness; levels we are used to; before 2012; baseline; hours needed for level of cleanliness; bathroom issues; who to report to is not established in MOU; School Dude recording system already in use and could be used for custodians/maintenance, but is not acceptable to the Town; an alternate system approved by the Town has been requested for 1 and a half years; requests made for Facilities Manager to attend Board meetings; recently told not to attend further meeting of BOE; town has the ability to do better job with maintenance than the BOE; there are a number of concerns; addendum will address concerns; Facilities Manager directed not to attend Board meetings; town treats Board like a tenant; funding issues; steps transferring to town and back to Board; custodians under town and not Board; issues with carpets at CS; and health issues regarding carpet cleaning if not done well; issues if town does not accept addendum; steps to terminate; notification begins with this addendum; town needs 180 days to terminate; need for cover letter to accompany addendum; remedy needed; possible counter proposal.
